

- > Children's Exposure
- > Community Resources
- > Conference Resources
- > Dating Violence
- > Domestic Violence in the Workplace
- > Media Violence
 - o Critical Media Literacy Resources for JK-Grade 12: Addressing Violence in the Media
- > Safe Schools

Critical Media Literacy Resources for JK-Grade 12: Addressing Violence in the Media

Introduction: Overview and Background

Although most parents and professionals working with children and adolescents are concerned about the potential harmful effects of media violence, there has been little societal intervention other than classifying material that may be inappropriate for children to watch. Recent publications such as the Action Agenda: A Strategic Blueprint for Reducing Exposure to Media

MEDIA LITERACY

- ✓ NEED RULES & RESTRICTIONS: Develop family rules on media content and consumption. (See <http://www.caringforkids.cps.ca/belabourparenting/SocialMedia.htm>)
- ✓ PARTICIPATE AND SHARE: Have child show you their favourite website.
- ✓ RESEARCH, RATINGS AND REVIEWS: Visit Common Sense Media and check the ratings on a new movie.